Report of Superintendent of Schools

FOR THE YEAR 1908-9.

SPRING TERM.

CENTER SCHOOL.

This term was taught by Edith M. Messer of East Corinth, Maine. Miss Messer came to me well recommended, having taught ten terms of school. Miss Messer is a good scholar and a graduate of East Corinth Academy. Number of scholars attending, 20. Average number of scholars attending, 16.59. Paid teacher seven dollars, including board. Number of weeks of school, eight. This school I visited April 13 at commencement and again June 17, at the close of the term. When I first went to this school I found it in a very backward condition, but at the end of the term I found the scholars well up in review and they had covered some new ground in new lessons. I called this a very good and prosperous school.

SPRING TERM.

CANTY SCHOOL.

This term was taught by Miss Pearl Wilson of Glenburn, Me. Miss Wilson had taught thirteen terms before mostly in this town. School commenced Apr. 27, 1908, and closed June 19, 1908. I visited this school May 5, and again June 18. Length of school eight weeks, whole number of scholars attending, 13; average number, 11; wages of teacher, \$7.00 including board. Instances tardiness, 0; of dismissal, 5; not absent $\frac{1}{2}$ day, 2; number of daily recitations, 28; number of visits of supt., 2; number of visits of citizens, 0.

Reading, number of class, 5; whole number of pupils, 13; spelling, number of class, 3; whole number of pupils, 11; penmanship, number of class, 1; whole number of pupils, 11; arithmetic, number of class 5; whole number of pupils, 12; grammar, number of class, 2; whole number of pupils, 8; geography, number of class, 4; whole number of pupils, 10; history, number of class 1; whole number of pupils, 4.

Miss Wilson kept good order and the scholars made rapid progress in all their work.

SPRING TERM.

WEST SCHOOL.

This term was taught by Mrs. M. M. Day of Bangor, Me. Number of scholars attending, 20; average number, 18; number of schools taught before, 17. School commenced Apr. 27, 1908, and closed June 19, 1908. I visited this school Apr. 27, May 13, June 19. Length of school, eight weeks. Wages paid teacher, $7.00 including board.

Instances of tardiness, 5; number not absent $\frac{1}{2}$ day, 4; instances of dismissal, 1; number of daily recitations, 28; number of visits from supt., 3; number of visits from parents, 5; number classes in reading, 5; whole number of pupils, 20; number classes in spelling, 2; whole number of pupils, 20; number classes in penmanship, 1; whole number of pupils, 17; number classes in arithmetic, 3; whole number of pupils, 17; number classes in grammar, 2; whole number of pupils, 13; number classes in geography, 3; whole number of pupils, 14; number classes in composition, 1; whole number of pupils, 6; number classes in history, 2; whole number of pupils, 13; number classes in physiology, 2; whole number of pupils, 13.

Mrs. Day labored hard and taught a good term of school giving me good satisfaction. Also the pupils and parents in the district.

FALL TERM.

CENTER SCHOOL.

This term was taught by Miss Edith M. Messer. Miss Messer had taught 11 terms of school. School commenced Sept. 8, 1908; closed Nov. 27, 1908. Visited by superintendent Sept. 10 and Nov. 17, 1908. Kept 12 weeks. Number attending school, 25; average attendance, 21; tardiness, 0; dismissal, 0; not absent $\frac{1}{2}$ day, 1; number of daily recitations, 43; number of visits by superintendent, 2, number of classes in reading, 7, whole number of pupils, 24; number of classes in spelling, 5, whole number of pupils, 25; number of classes in penmanship, 1, whole number of pupils, 25; number of classes in arithmetic, 7, whole number of pupils, 19; number of classes in grammar, 2, whole number of pupils, 7; number of classes in geography, 2, whole number of pupils, 12; number of classes in history, 4, whole number of pupils, 6; number of classes in physiology, 1, whole number of pupils, 2. I think Miss Messer tried to do the best in teaching the scholars and they were thorough in their work and with good lessons. This term was a good one as far as learning and advancement of the scholars.

FALL TERM.

CANTY SCHOOL.

This term was taught by Miss Pearl Wilson.

Miss Wilson had taught fourteen terms of school. School commenced September 7 and closed November 25, 1908.

Superintendent visited the school September 7 and November 19, 1908; length of school twelve weeks; whole number of scholars regular, 12; average number of scholars, 9; teacher's wages per week, $7.00; number instances of tardiness, 7; number instances of dismissal, 7; number pupils not absent one-half day, 2; number of daily recitations, 29; number of visits of superintendent, 2; number of visits of citizens, 0; number classes in reading, 5; number of pupils, 12; number classes in spelling, 3; number of pupils, 10; number classes in penmanship, 1; number of pupils, 12; number of classes in arithmetic, 5; number of pupils, 10; number of classes in grammar, 2; number of pupils, 7; number of classes in geography, 4; whole number of pupils, 7; number of classes in history, 2; whole number of pupils, 7;

Miss Wilson kept good order and the scholars loved to obey her. I tried to engage her for the winter term but could not on account of the failing health of her mother but I recommend her to any one wanting a teacher.

FALL TERM.

WEST SCHOOL.

This term was taught by Miss Lizzie Jones. Miss Jones had taught 31 schools with good results. School commenced Sept. 7 and closed Nov. 27, 1908. Visited by supt. Sept. 8, 1908 and Nov. 25, 1908. School closed Nov. 27, length of term, 12 weeks.

Whole number of scholars attending school, 18; average number of scholars attending school, 15; teacher's wages including board, $7.00; instances of tardiness, 29; number of pupils not absent one-half day, 1; number daily recitations, 37; number of visits by supt., 2; number of classes in reading, 5; number of classes in spelling, 5; number of classes in penmanship, 4; number of classes in arithmetic, 6; number of classes in grammar, 1; number of classes in geography, 3; number of classes in composition, 3; number of classes in history, 3; number of classes in physiology, 3; number of classes in bookkeeping 1; number of classes in algebra 1.

Books in bad condition.

Miss Jones is a fine teacher with good methods and keeps fine order. The pupils have advanced rapidly and thoroughly in both terms.

WINTER TERM.

CENTER SCHOOL.

This term was commenced by Miss Edith Messer. This was Miss Messer's twelfth term of school. School commenced Dec. 14, 1908; closed Feb. 5, 1909. This school was visited by the superintendent Dec. 15, 1908. Number of weeks of school, 8; scholars registered, 21; average number attending, 18.16. Paid teacher per week, seven dollars including board. Number of daily recitations, 28; number of visits by superintendent, 1; number of classes in reading, 7, whole number of pupils, 21; number of classes in spelling, 5, whole number of pupils, 21, number of classes in penmanship, 1; whole number of pupils, 20; number of classes in arithmetic, 7, whole number of pupils, 18; number of classes in grammar, 2, whole number of pupils, 6; number of classes in geography, 2, whole number of pupils, 11; number of classes in history, 1, whole number of pupils, 4; number of classes in physiology, 2, whole number of pupils, 5.

This school was closed after eight weeks, Miss Messer having lost control of the scholars and could not gain it again.

It seemed to be the ambition of some of the older pupils to see how bad they could act. I do not think they tried to learn as much as they did the first two terms but they tried to graduate from the top of the Granger's stable and the corner grocers shop. I did not get around to visit the school on account of sickness but as soon as I could I thought it best to close the school and so did the teacher under all the conditions.

WINTER TERM.

CANTY SCHOOL.

This term is being taught by Miss Jennie Tibbetts of Hermon. Miss Tibbetts had taught four terms before with good success. Amount paid per week $7.00 including board. The term is on the tenth week, and the school will be 12 weeks in all, amounting in all to $84.00 including board with janitor's fees $3.00. Miss Tibbetts is keeping a good school with good order and the pupils are advancing very fast and they are thorough in their studies.

This is an unfinished term and I have not visited it for the last time.

WINTER TERM.

WEST SCHOOL.

This term is being taught by Miss Lizzie Jones. This is Miss Jones 32d term of school and she has taught a number of terms in this town giving good satisfaction in them all.

This is an unfinished term having kept ten weeks and will finish March 5, 1909.

Miss Jones maintains good order with thorough lessons. This school has made rapid progress under Miss Jones; her wages including board will be $84.00 and for janitor's fees $3.00.

The number of scholars in town April 1, 1908, was 132.

The number of scholars attending town schools,	54

The readers in this school are in bad condition and I would recommend a change of readers and spellers for they have been in use in this town a long time and we can make a change for one-half the cost of new books by putting in the old ones.

All which is respectfully submitted.

F. E. PERKINS, Supt. of Schools.
